

Alberta Golf Hall of Fame - Player

Betty Stanhope-Cole

Inducted: 2005

Club Affiliation: Highlands Golf Club

Ranked as Canada's top female golfer in 1974 and 1976, Betty Stanhope Cole is among the elite of Canada's female amateurs.

Winner of the Canadian Junior Girls Championship, Canadian Ladies Open Amateur and Canadian Ladies Close Amateur, Cole represented Canada four times between 1964 and 1976 and played on twenty-five Alberta interprovincial teams.

In 1980 she gave up competitive golf to devote her time to the Canadian Ladies Golf Association and later to the Alberta Golf Association.

Competitive Record

International Teams

World Amateur Team: 1964, 1974, 1976

Commonwealth Team: 1971

National:

Canadian Junior Girls Champion: 1956

Canadian Ladies Amateur Champion: 1957

Canadian Ladies Close Amateur Champion: 1967

Provincial

Eastern Provinces Champion: 1964

Alberta Junior Girls Champion: 1955-1957

Alberta Junior Girls runner-up: 1953-1954

Alberta Ladies Amateur Champion: 1957-1959, 1963, 1966-1968, 1972, 1974-1976, 1979, 1980, 1982, 1984, 1988

Saskatchewan Ladies Amateur Champion 1966

Provincial Teams

Played in 29 Interprovincial Matches: 25 for Alberta, 2 for Ontario and 2 for Saskatchewan

Other Items of Note:

Betty was inducted into the Canadian Golf Hall of Fame in 1991.